

Minutes – 9th September 2015

Present – Dave Howells, Julia Blazer, Christopher Spry, Sian Miller, Kay Evans, Lee Evans, Nathan Morley, David Ross, Rick Coldicott and Sharon Millar

Apologies – Punch Maugham

1. Notes from the meeting on 19th August were agreed. Sharon to send to Punch for the website.

2. Woodland Trust – Dave Howells informed the group about an Oak treeplanting project. Elizabeth Jeffries has asked Dave for ideas from individuals about where might be a good place to plant them. Suggestions of possible sites to Dave by 16th September with grid references please.

3. Usk Reservoir Commemoration Service – Sharon updated the group on information received from Dwr Cymru about there not being any funding to replace the stolen plaques. Christopher Spry volunteered to write to the Chairman of Dwr Cymru to query this.

Sian Miller brought some photos of the building of the Usk Reservoir for us to use as part of our exhibition.

David Ross agreed to speak to Lizbeth Matthews at Crai History Society to see if they have any documentation/ photos we can use.

Sharon Millar will have a look at microfiches in Brecon Library.

4. Update On Sennybridge Conveniences – Sian Miller provided details of expenses so far and reported that everything was going well. The rota is working but from the end of September, members of the group will have to volunteer for Wednesday opening and closing because Cobblers will be shut.

5. Leader Funding Deadline 11th September – Julia Blazer volunteered to fill in the straightforward expression of interest form for Friday's deadline.

Rick Coldicott - to speak to Lee Price from Powys County Council about expression of interest.

6. Llandovery Sheep Festival – Dave Howells has been asked to be at this festival at the end of September in his capacity as Agincourt organiser of archers etc. He would like to represent the UUV there as well and wishes to use the UUV backdrop and flags. He will check first what type of space he has been allocated. Sharon Millar and David Ross offered to help on the day but more volunteers might be needed.

7. Waymarkers – Christopher Spry will write a letter to be given to local landowners about the positioning of waymarkers. Two people from each village will speak to farmers etc and check the routes.

Crai – David and Ali Ross

Defynnog – Julia Blazer and Sian Miller

Sennybridge – Punch Maugham and Christopher Spry

Trecastle – Dave Howells and Sharon Millar

Sharon Millar will distribute waymarkers to group members.

8.20pm – Meeting closed
